

Keys to be a successful online learner at the Rockets Online Campus

Avoid distractions and stay focused!

Being online is flexible, but successful online students have a consistent schedule, work area, and strategy in place to get things done.

Positive Communication

Call 814-827-0565 if and when you are struggling online with your work!.

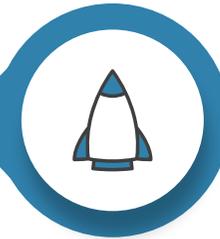

Join in the daily meetings online

These daily meetings online are set to allow you to meet with your teachers and to have all work for the day to be introduced or reviewed..

Use the ROC Faculty and Staff

The ROC faculty and staff are waiting online or by the phone to help you.

Stay Organized

Successful online students organize their work, workspace, and their schedules.

Actively participate in your courses.

Do your work everyday...don't get behind. Being online is no different than being face to face in school.
